the employer; and 2
- (b) immediately before the relevant event, the 3
person was a member of the scheme; and 4
- (c) any of the following apply— 5
- (i) the relevant event happens under an 6
Act that provides that, on the 7 happening of the relevant event, the 8 person keeps all the person's existing 9
and accruing rights relating to 10
superannuation; 11
- (ii) the Minister declares, by gazette 12
notice, that on the happening of the 13

employer for this division by 19

employer; and 21

- (2) To remove any doubt, it is declared that— 31

- (a) the person’s membership in the scheme may end under this Act other than because of the happening of the relevant event; and
- (b) if subsection (1) applies to a person who is a member in the standard defined benefit category as defined under section 32M—
- (i) the person’s membership or entitlement to membership of the standard defined benefit category is unaffected by the happening of the relevant event; and
- (ii) section 32N does not apply to the person.
- (3) Subsection (2) applies for the circumstances mentioned in section 14C(c)(ii) from when the relevant event happens, even if the gazette notice mentioned in that section is published after the relevant event happens.
- 14E Employer may not revoke agreement
- An employer who gives a notice under section 14(c)(iii)(B) may not revoke the notice.
- 14F Minister’s power to declare particular matters unaffected
- (1) Nothing in this division prevents the Minister from—
- (a) declaring the person’s employer to be a unit of the State public sector under section 2A; or
- (b) declaring matters about the person’s membership in the scheme under section 14B.
- (2) However, a declaration under section 14B about the person’s membership in the scheme must be
